

2007 State-Fish Art Contest

Winners

The Pennsylvania winners of the 2007 State-Fish Art Contest are:

Dennis Barth

Grades 4-6

Evan Martin

Grades 7-9

Kyle Kozar

Grades 10-12

The State-Fish Art Expo last July at Bloomington, Minnesota's Mall of America featured the winners of the 2007 State-Fish Art Contest in an enormous art display. Included were the works of the three Pennsylvania winners, and an awards ceremony honored all the winners.

The contest included some 2,385 entries nationwide with 121 Pennsylvania entries in all categories.

Located in Brooklyn Center, Minnesota, Wildlife Forever is a non-profit multi-species conservation organization dedicated to preserving America's wildlife heritage. Pennsylvania is a partner agency in the contest. The State-Fish Art Contest requires students in grades 4 through 12 to depict their official state fish and provide an essay on that fish's characteristics, behavior, habitat or efforts to conserve it. Pennsylvania's official state fish is the brook trout.

Contest rules and regulations appear in this issue on the preceding page, and an entry form follows the artwork. The winning artists' works can be viewed on the Commission's web site, www.fish.state.pa.us. Winning artwork from Pennsylvania and from other states can be seen on Wildlife Forever's contest site, www.statefishart.com. ☐

RULES & REGULATIONS:

- The State-Fish Art Contest is open to children in grades four through twelve attending public, private, or home-schools in the United States. Only one entry per child will be accepted.
- Portfolios will be judged on the quality of the artwork.
- The artwork must call attention to the official fish of the entrant's home state. PA's official state fish is the brook trout. The fish must be depicted in its natural habitat. Information about each state fish is available at www.statefishart.com.
- All artwork must be the contestant's original, hand-done creation. Photographs and computer-generated artwork will not be accepted.
- All artwork must be 8.5"x11" and horizontal, without a mat, frame, cover sheet, or border. Art techniques may include scratchboard, pointillism, chalk, charcoal, dry brush, watercolor, crosshatch, lead, collage, linoleum printing, or crayon. Please note: If contestants use chalk, charcoal or lead, they should seal the artwork with an adhesive.
- All artwork must not exceed 1/4-inch in total thickness.
- No lettering, signatures, or initials may appear on the front of the design. Any artwork with such identifying characteristics will be disqualified and eliminated from the competition.
- Completed portfolios must include a typed composition or theme paper not to exceed one page in length. Compositions should relate specifically to the characteristics of the state fish, its habitat, behavior, or efforts to conserve it. The composition must include the student's name and address.

The "Art of Conservation" Stamp Award

Each year, Wildlife Forever will select one design from all the entries for an interesting, useful and attractive fish stamp. Criteria for selection of the award follows:

• All rules, regulations and deadlines of the State-Fish Art Contest apply.

- The state fish should be the dominant feature of the design and the habitat must be appropriate for your species and state.
- Designs may include fishing-related items.
- Keep the design simple. The image will be reduced to create a stamp.
- Color will be given priority over black and white.
- Do not make the design look like a stamp. No numbers or design elements are allowed.

PRIZES:

- All contestants will receive a certificate of participation.
- Three winners from each state will be selected on Earth Day of each year—one winner per grade group (4-6th, 7-9th, 10-12th) for a total of 150 winners (50 states x 3 winners = 150).
- All winning designs will be displayed at the State-Fish Art Expo in the summer.
- All winning designs will be online at www.statefishart.com.
- Visit "Prizes" at www.statefishart.com to catch the latest information about prizes for the Wildlife Forever State-Fish Art Contest.

THE FINE PRINT:

- The State-Fish Art Contest is not open to the immediate relatives of Wildlife Forever employees or participating sponsors.
- It is the student's responsibility to inform Wildlife Forever of any change of address.

Wildlife Forever:

- Has the right to use the name of any State-Fish Art contestant without compensation.
- Retains ownership of all artwork entered in the contest. In order to promote the Wildlife Forever State-Fish Art Contest, products such as posters, prints, T-shirts, etc., may be produced from winning artwork. Any money realized from the sale or licensing of the artwork will be used to support the contest, wildlife conservation, and education initiatives. The winning artists must provide autographs without charge to Wildlife Forever.
- Will return all other entries upon request after August 31 of the contest year, if the student provides a self-addressed 10"x13" envelope.
- Reserves the right to destroy unclaimed entries after one year.

PA's State Fish—Brook Trout

- Will not insure entries it receives or be responsible for loss or damage of the entries.
