Mill Creek Access Reopened

Meadville, PA – The Pennsylvania Fish and Boat Commission (PFBC) is happy to announce that the Mill Creek Access, Mill Creek Township, Clarion County was reopened for use by anglers and boaters as of 3pm on August 17, 2010. PFBC construction crews completed the emergency repairs that extended the launch ramp. This extension will provide six feet of water at the end of the ramp at normal pool and four feet when drawn down.

The mission of the Fish and Boat Commission is to protect, conserve, and enhance the Commonwealth's aquatic resources and provide fishing and boating opportunities. For more information about fishing and boating in Pennsylvania, please visit our website at www.fishandboat.com.
