

Register NOW for this FREE event!

Pennsylvania's Fly Fishing Heritage

January 30 • 6 to 9 p.m.

Fish & Boat Commission Headquarters
1601 Elmerton Avenue, Harrisburg

Event Schedule

5:45-6:30 p.m. LOBBY

Doors are open for registrants to visit lobby exhibits. Registrants must check-in at table inside front doors.

Lobby exhibits include:

- Cumberland Valley Chapter Trout Unlimited (CVTU)
- Thom Glace, fish artist
- George Lavanish, Wilderness Editions
- Pennsylvania Fly Fishing Museum Association
- Pennsylvania Fish & Boat Commission (PFBC)

6:30 p.m. SUSQUEHANNA ROOM

Welcome: John Arway, PFBC Executive Director
PFBC recognition to CVTU for their receipt of Trout Unlimited's "Gold Trout" Award.

6:45 p.m. SUSQUEHANNA ROOM

Presentation: "Pennsylvania's Fly Fishing Heritage"
John Randolph, Editor Emeritus, Fly Fisherman
Mr. Randolph covers the contribution of Pennsylvania anglers, historically, to the sport of fly fishing and especially those who wrote how-to, where-to information that contributed so much to our sport.

7:20 p.m. SUSQUEHANNA ROOM

Presentation: "Return to the Rhody"

George Daniel, National Fly Fishing Champion and author
In this presentation, Mr. Daniel shares his passion and knowledge of fly fishing small streams. In addition, he will share the tricks he has learned from his mentor, Joe Humphreys, and also small stream lessons he learned during his six-year stay with Fly Fishing Team USA.

8:00 p.m. SUSQUEHANNA ROOM

Remarks and Introduction of Fly-tying Stations:

John Arway, PFBC Executive Director

8:10 p.m. SUSQUEHANNA & ERIE ROOMS

Attendees are invited to see members of the Cumberland Valley Chapter Trout Unlimited expertly show their craft of tying some of Pennsylvania's best flies for a wide range of fishing opportunities.

During the evening, attendees will also be able to purchase their 2012 fishing license, see demonstrations by PFBC Education staff and receive FREE PFBC publications.

FREE to the public • pre-registration REQUIRED.

Exhibits: 6 p.m. • Presentation: 6:30 p.m.

REGISTER AT: www.fishandboat.com