

Clean Appreciate Water

When you appreciate something, you are grateful for it and value it. Appreciation is something you feel inside. But if you really appreciate something, it's easy to show it on the outside—BY YOUR ACTIONS.

You can show your appreciation by:

1 Learning more about something.

What is one thing related to fish or fishing that you want to learn more about?

2 Doing things to protect what you appreciate.

List two things you can do to protect fish or fishing.

1) _____

2) _____

3 Letting others know why you think it's important.

Describe why fish and fishing are important to you.
