BACK TO THE BASICS:

PADDLING GEAR

Imagine slowly drifting down a quiet river. Birds are chirping, turtles are basking and a deer takes a sip of water. Moments like this are common to paddlers in a canoe or kayak.

Paddling is fun, but can seem overwhelming. Which type of canoe or kayak is best? How long should your paddle be? Which life jacket (personal flotation device or PFD) should you get? We'll help you decide.

You'll also learn about safety, techniques and where to paddle in the next several PLAY issues. You'll be a perfect paddler in no time.
