

2004 State-Fish Art Contest Winners

The Pennsylvania winners of Wildlife Forever's 2004 Wildlife Forever State-Fish Art Contest were:

Evan Martin

East Earl
grades 4-6;

Noah Muller

Ulysses
grades 7-9; and

Josh Joint

Erie, grades 10-12

Winners of the Wildlife Forever State-Fish Art Contest were recognized at the State-Fish Art Expo at the Mall of America in Bloomington, Minnesota, last June. Winning artwork was displayed for mall visitors and an award ceremony acknowledged the hard work of the talented young artists. Pennsylvania winners received a framed trout stamp print from the Fish & Boat Commission.

Evan Martin is a repeat winner, having won last year's contest for grades 4-6. Josh Joint's win was his fifth straight. He won in his age group in 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2003. In addition, for the second year in a row, his painting was named "Best of Show" in grades 10-12.

Winner: Evan Martin, Grades 4-6

Located in Brooklyn Center, Minnesota, Wildlife Forever is a non-profit multi-species conservation organization dedicated to preserving America's wildlife heritage. Pennsylvania is a partner agency in the contest. The State-Fish Art Contest requires students in grades 4 through 12 to depict their official state fish and provide an essay on that fish's characteristics, behavior, habitat or efforts to conserve it. Pennsylvania's official state fish is the brook trout. A total of 78 Pennsylvania students submitted entries in the 2004 contest.

Winner: Noah Muller, Grades 7-9

The contest's rules and regulations appear in this issue on the preceding page, and an entry form appears on page 48.

The winning artists' works can be viewed on the Commission's web site, www.fish.state.pa.us. Winning artwork from other states can be seen on Wildlife Forever's contest site, www.statefishart.com. ☐
