

2008 PFBC Photography Contest

From 288 entries, judges selected first-, second- and third-place winners and one honorable-mention winner in the six categories of the 2008 PA Fish & Boat Commission Photography Contest.

First-, second- and third-place winners will receive a certificate, the limited-edition magazine 75th anniversary patches and the limited-edition 2008 nongame species patch. Honorable mention winners will receive a certificate and the limited-edition 2008 nongame species patch.

The contest's "best in show" winner, now chosen for the fourth year, was selected from all category first-place winners. The best in show winner (see below) will receive a framed print.

Special thanks go to this year's judges: PA Angler & Boater editor Spring Gearhart, Commission communications chief Eric Levis and Commission waterway programs manager Kelly Sharp. A tip of the hat also goes to employees

Norine Bahnweg, Rose Ann Bartal and Teri Miller for tracking submissions as they arrived and for organizing the entries for judging.

Winning photographs may appear in future issues of PA Angler & Boater and in other Commission publications, exhibits, projects and media. Winning entries also appear on the Commission's web site, www.fishandboat.com.

See page 53 to view the 2009 PA Fish & Boat Commission Photography Contest rules and entry form. The entry deadline is December 31, 2009. Don't wait. Search your photographs, plan a photography trip now, fill out an entry form (required) and enter the 2009 contest. ☐
