

PFBC Labor Day Week

On Saturday, September 3, the Pennsylvania Fish & Boat Commission (PFBC) held Family Fishing Festivals at six locations across the state, one in each PFBC region, in cooperation with the Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, Bureau of State Parks. The festivals were held in conjunction with PFBC's second Fish-for-Free Day, held on Labor Day, September 5.

"Family Fishing Festivals are free educational events designed for families

NORTHWEST REGION Pymatuning State Park Crawford County

photos-Shirlee Foster

photo-Miriamia Smith

photo-Dennis Tubbs

photo-Dennis Tubbs

photo-Dennis Tubbs

NORTHCENTRAL REGION Hills Creek State Park Tioga County

photos-Amideia Daniel end Family Fishing Festivals with little or no fishing experience,” said Carl Richardson, PFBC manager of Education and Outreach. “Participating families learn basic fishing skills and have the opportunity to practice those skills while fishing together during the program.”

Videos and additional photos from the six Family Fishing Festivals are available at www.fishandboat.com. For more information on Family Fishing Programs, visit the Commissions website at www.fishandboat.com/education/programs_fishing.htm. Read more about family fishing on page 41.

SOUTHCENTRAL REGION Pine Grove Furnace State Park Cumberland County

NORTHEAST REGION Frances Slocum State Park Luzerne County

SOUTHEAST REGION Marsh Creek State Park Chester County

photos-Ted Walke

photos-Spring Geahart

photos-Jeff Decker